SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Financing local educational costs has traditionally been the responsibility of the local community. Now, however, a California Supreme Court decision that declared California's present system of financing its public school systems to be unconstitutional has created shock waves throughout the nation despite the fact that ultimate decision will probably await a U. S. Supreme Court ruling.

In its decision, the California court ruled that the present arrangement based largely on property taxes levied within school districts denies equal educational opportunities to residents of less industrialized areas since they must be taxed at a higher rate to cover school costs than persons in wealthier or more industrialized areas.

Dependent upon the outcome of the California decision, some serious implications may develop. Invariably, when outside monies are channeled into local governments some degree of local control is lost or diminished through guidelines imposed or mandated. Whether this sacrifice will be necessary or whether alternative approaches such as revenue sharing on a state and local basis may be more feasible remains to be seen. The problem of providing monies for education, however, still remains.

The next decade will see an increasing emphasis on vocational education and career planning development. Our society now realized that a college or university education should not and need not be required of every youngster entering the field of work. Welfare statistics, however, clearly indicate that vocational education has sorely been overlooked by the public school system. Federal, state, and local monies combined now spent on welfare programs outnumber monies spent on education by a 6 to 1 ratio, with no indication that the gap will narrow.

Additional and new programs in vocational education would indeed cost more money and will give rise to concern as to how it can be afforded. However, can we not afford it if we are to prepare youngsters for a productive and secure life as opposed to a life of welfare and non-productivity? The cost of the latter is obvious. The rapidly changing field of technology has resulted in major changes in labor productivity and occupational fields available, consumer products, environmental conditions, housing, transportation, and changes in practically all aspects of our daily living. The question now remains if we are to meet this forthcoming challenge in education by local, state, or federal mandate.

Respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN DEHL
Superintendent of Schools

GUIDANCE COUNSELOR'S REPORT

In my first year as Guidance Counselor in grades 8—12 of Supervisory Union No. 7, I have had three basic objectives:

1. To ascertain what has been done in the way of guidance during the past few years in Supervisory Union No. 7.
2. To build upon the past by initiating a program which will develop in each student a sense of self-understanding, a store of healthy attitudes, a realization of his responsibility to himself as well as others, and the ability to make sound decisions.
3. To become acquainted with students, teachers, administrators, and parents so that all can move toward the above-mentioned goals which really are the purposes of and reasons for guidance.

While the scope of these objectives is virtually unlimited, I feel that firm steps have been taken toward their eventual fulfillment. Much has been accomplished through innumerable dialogues with individuals, some group guidance, a considerable amount of group and individual testing and the providing of desired information and materials.

Much remains to be done in this never ending process of guidance. One of the weaker points of the program thus far has been the lack of communication with parents. Although I have talked with quite a number of fathers and mothers concerning a variety of matters involving their children, a great deal more needs to be done in this particular area. Steps to correct the situation will be taken little by little commencing this spring with a series of guidance newsletters to parents, some newspaper releases and an increase in the number of visitations. Hopefully, over a period of time, a close relationship can be established between parents and the guidance office, with the common aim of helping students—sons and daughters, achieve a greater degree of happiness and success in their homes, their schools, and their communities.

Please do not hesitate to contact me concerning any specific question that you may have involving your children and/or the guidance program.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN M. SHIELDS
Guidance Counselor

SCHOOL HEALTH

The objectives of a school health program are to perform the necessary functions to maintain and promote good health for all the pupils in our schools.

Each year the following services are performed: checking heights and weights, vision and hearing screening, physical examinations for students in grades 4, 8, and 11, as well as all involved in athletics, T. B. skin tests as recommended by the T. B. Association of this state, necessary immunizations, pre-school clinics for incoming first graders and including the Early Childhood Program pupils this year, home visits as deemed necessary for good communications between the school and the parents and for follow-through health care, first aid and emergency care, health teaching and counseling, promotion of mental health, and continuous supervision of general health.

The Matching Fund Dental Program sponsored by the local towns and the state was utilized again this year with as many pupils receiving dental care as time and monies allowed.

North Country Education Services again provided a speech and hearing specialist with one and one-half days per week devoted to Supervisory Union 7 students with speech and hearing defects.

Each year we strive to improve the school health program. With everyone working together, it is hoped that we can achieve our goal in this endeavor.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH CUMMINGS, R. N.
School Nurse

ANNUAL REPORT FOR VER-SHIRE SCHOOL & SHOP

Colebrook, New Hampshire

This program has dealt specifically with the handicapped and disadvantaged in the area. It has served individuals in this capacity from the ages of 6 to 63. In the true sense of the word, it has been special education for the handicapped and disadvantaged in relation to each individual's needs.

Upon enrollment each individual experiences an evaluation process as a basic orientation to the program. The program is an assessment of the capabilities and limitations of the individual enrollee through vocational related activities.

It has been demonstrated that if certain individuals are unable to sufficiently develop a trade or skill, they can still benefit from an opportunity to work and socialize outside of their neighborhood environment.

An academic program of specialized tutoring for each individual's basic needs and academic skills has been developed. This aspect of the program coordinates with the vocational related activities thus being the motivating factor for continued academic achievement on the part of individuals.

In recognition to this new and innovative type of approach to education, the State Title III office has provided a grant to Ver-Shire School and Shop to develop this program more extensively. One of the Title III primary purposes being to provide such information to other communities throughout the state and nation for utilizing these educational techniques for the handicapped and disadvantaged.

The number, range and variety of handicaps served in this program have demonstrated the need for growth in this facility. Acquisition of adjoining space is in the process.

In recognition of the success achieved by this program, on September 10, 1971, the New Hampshire Council for Better Schools presented its commendation award to Ver-Shire School and Shop for its Sheltered Workshop for handicapped and disadvantaged individuals:

"With the emphasis on remedial education pre-vocational training and the development of attributes of honesty, responsibility, trust and reliability, the project is not unlike other vocational-technical projects for the handicapped. The outstanding aspect of the Ver-Shire project is the degree of community involvement. It was the community that recognized the demand for a program to serve the disadvantaged. The community and its various organizations provide economic support. Community resources are utilized to provide educational remediation, skilled instruction and employment opportunities. The value of such a program for the disadvantaged individuals is undisputed and this community has discovered that the benefits reach into all aspects of community life."

I would like to take this opportunity to "congratulate" and "thank" each and every one of you in this total community for making Ver-Shire School and Shop a reality.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE COULTER
Coordinator
Ver-Shire School & Shop
